

Twice As Nice Mother & Child NEWSLETTER

Twice As Nice Mother & Child

JUNE 2014

Dear Friends of Twice As Nice Mother & Child,

We invite you to visit our brand new online headquarters at www.twiceasnicemc.org. This will allow Twice As Nice Mother & Child to better coordinate our donations, volunteers and supporters throughout the year, and serve as the hub for all our activities. Any visitor to our site will be able to better understand the nature and importance of the work that we do [ABOUT US]; become an active participant in that work [WHAT YOU CAN DO], and donate to the cause [VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES / DONATE NOW]. This will be a crucial element to our strategic plan to grow and serve more members of our community who desperately need our help. Now, with your help, that outreach can begin.

We urge you to take a moment to go to the site, and see what it has to offer. Share the link with your friends and community leaders, and encourage anyone in need to contact us. Our outreach cannot succeed without your help.

SPECIAL THANKS!

THE PARTY

Some 100 guests came together at Lake Forest's Gorton Community Center for the sixth annual Founders Event for the Mothers Trust Foundation.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

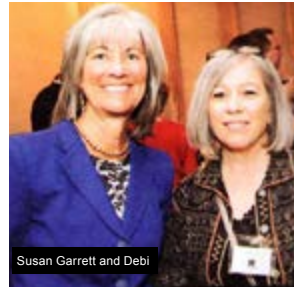

The crowd enjoyed a relaxing mix of refreshments and music, while speakers Cal Schneider and Cheri Neal shared moving personal stories detailing the organization's efforts. The event celebrated members who strive to make the Lake County community a better place for disadvantaged children in need of assistance with five awards given to honor the unyielding dedication of volunteers, service partners and corporate supporters. -MZ

MOTHERS TRUST FOUNDATION 2014 FOUNDERS EVENT

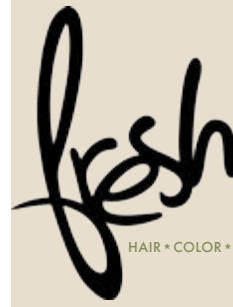

Twice As Nice Mother & Child was invited to attend the sixth annual Mothers Trust Foundation Founders Event in February, which honors members who enhance the community through their excellence in service. We received an award for our exemplary support for Lake County children in need. The event was also featured in the Spring 2014 issue of Modern Luxury North Shore magazine (pictured above).
